Insurance policies are often complex documents. Whether you are the insurer or the insured, coverage interpretation is almost never a clear-cut matter. At Meyner and Landis LLP, our lawyers are regularly called upon to provide representation or legal opinions on a variety of insurance recovery and insurance coverage disputes.

At Meyner and Landis LLP, we have experience litigating on behalf of policyholders in complex insurance-related disputes. We have represented large corporate policyholders as well as smaller insureds in actions against their insurers in all types of insurance coverage claims.

Individuals and companies might need the help and guidance of a skilled attorney at various stages throughout the process. Whether you are examining a new policy, renewing coverage, evaluating the implications of a merger or negotiating a dispute regarding recovery, our experience can directly benefit you.
