

Practice Areas

Banking, Immigration, Business Disputes, Contract and Commercial Litigation, and Real Estate Attorneys

Appellate Practice : Meyner and Landis successfully represented clients on appeals of lower court rulings and decisions in many types of matters.

Banking and Financial Transactions : Meyner and Landis' banking and financial transaction attorneys represent many financial institutions in asset-based, construction, commercial and real estate loan transactions.

Business/Corporate Immigration : Our immigration law practice has a special emphasis on employer-related immigration. The practice of immigration law is federal in scope. As such, the immigration attorneys at Meyner and Landis represent business employers throughout the United States.

Commercial Litigation :Our commercial litigation practice has extensive experience in handling many types of commercial, contract and business disputes from counseling a client on pre-litigation strategies to trials and to post-judgment proceedings in both federal and state courts, and arbitration tribunals. These matters include breach of contract claims, uniform commercial code actions, domain name disputes, misappropriation of trade secrets, unlawful dissemination of proprietary and confidential business information, claims under the Computer Related Offenses Act, unfair competition claims, restrictive covenants and non-compete claims, shareholder derivative suits, business dissolution/partnership breakups and other business divorces, real estate matters, employment claims, and a variety of business torts.

Construction Litigation :Our construction law attorneys represent a variety of construction industry clients, including general contractors, construction managers and subcontractors in both the public and private sectors, including breach of contract claims, lien claims, change order claims and delay claims.

Corporate Business Transactions :The business law attorneys at Meyner and Landis provide legal counsel in the areas of business formation and organization, and corporate transactions, as well as real estate services, including environmental issues. Our firm prepares stockholder and employment agreements.

Creditors' Rights : The lawyers at Meyner and Landis have extensive experience on behalf of secured creditors in negotiating and restructuring defaulted loans, asset recovery, collections, foreclosures, secured party collateral sales, bankruptcy financing, and litigation in adversary proceedings.

Environmental Law : Our environmental practice handles all aspects of buying and selling contaminated property including lender requirements, insurance, regulatory compliance, LSRP oversight, cost recovery and environmental permitting. The Group also handles solid waste, air pollution, corporate compliance, renewable energy and all aspects of financing public and private environmental projects.

Family Immigration Law :Meyner and Landis' immigration law attorneys handle family-based immigration matters so as to assist U.S. citizens, legal U.S. residents, immigrants and refugees who are seeing reunification with their family members or loved ones to secure family-based immigrant or fiance visas. We also represent U.S. permanent residents seeking naturalization.

General Litigation :Meyner and Landis handles a wide range of civil and commercial litigation for its clients as both plaintiffs and defendants in federal and state courts and in administrative proceedings. These matters include contract and commercial disputes, banking and lender liability issues, title and insurance coverage, employment law, creditor rights, secured transactions, real estate matters, regulatory and state and local tax issues, employment issues, land use and environmental claims.

Real Estate and Land Use :Meyner and Landis' real estate lawyers represent lenders in real estate construction and loans, and represent for-profit and non-profit developers in purchases and sales of properties, financing, construction and leasing, and land use and zoning applications.

Trust Services and Estate Planning :Meyner & Landis' estate planning attorneys counsel private banking and trust departments on estate and trust issues, advise individual clients in estate planning and business control transactions, and handle probate and administration of trusts and estates. Our litigation attorneys handle contested wills and other probate litigation.